November 28, 2021 ~ First Sunday of Advent

“Together We Wait”

On this first Sunday of the church year, many of us will gaze at the single flame that is burning on the Advent wreath. It seems so small and insignificant against the background of world events and even our own lives. Often, we are so physically and mentally exhausted at the end of the year that we may be skeptical about this tiny, flickering flame and the illumination it can offer us. But as we enter this season, the church encourages us to have hope in the promises of God that can so easily flicker in and out of our consciousness. At first hearing, Luke’s message today may seem to be proclaiming a message of fear and doom; its truth, however, is different. Christ, in his second glorious coming will liberate us from all fear and menace. Many people in our world commit themselves to what has not yet happened and to long-range hopes. Advent challenges us to let our hopes reach beyond cozy limits to the huge and human hope of a new creation. Our gospel message today reminds us that we wait for something more than the celebration of Christ at Christmas. Jesus tells his disciples that a day will come when all must stand before God. Like the disciples, we too wait for the coming of Christ at the end of time when sin, fear, and injustice will be no more. Together We Wait!

As we conclude this holiday weekend, I hope that Thanksgiving was a good and happy day for you and your family. We all have a great deal to be thankful for, especially to God for all the blessings of this life. As we enter this season of Advent, I hope that many of you will join us this Tuesday evening for our special Advent Evening Prayer of Lessons and Carols. This reflective prayer of scripture and song helps set the tone for this week before Christmas and provides an opportunity for all of us to wait together for the coming of Christ.

Finally, I hope you received information about our parking lot project in the mail this past week and had some time to reflect and think about your support towards this project. If you haven’t yet read the information sent, I would ask that you please do so and then pray about your response. Together we can make this dream a reality by contributing to the legacy of those who have gone before us and ensuring the future for those who come after us. Your generosity over the years has been overwhelming and kind. It is my hope that this kindness will continue as we begin this exciting and historic project for our parish. Thank you for your kind consideration.

Have a great week! ~ Fr. Balash

First Sunday of Advent

"But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand."
(Luke 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those closet to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

All parishioners are being asked to consider a 5-month (December-April) pledge of $1,000 (or more!) to help finance this project.
