December 26, 2021 ~ Feast of the Holy Family

“Hark! The Herald Angels Sing!”

On this Christmas holiday weekend we gather today to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. It is very appropriate that the Church observes this feast on the first Sunday after the biggest family day of the year. Today, Luke’s gospel account provides an interesting “family” episode for us to ponder. Family relationships are not always easy, and even the Holy Family encountered challenges of family life. Mary and Joseph must have been so worried when they could not find Jesus and it is not unreasonable to believe they experienced the same emotions that many of us feel in family life. Today’s gospel also shows the importance of communication within the family. Mary asks, “why have you done this to us?” and Jesus simply responds, “why were you looking for me?” Luke even tells us that Jesus’s parents did not understand what Jesus said to them. Misunderstandings are unavoidable in any relationship. We must always be mindful of how we respond when misunderstandings happen. As we celebrate and seek to emulate the Holy Family may we do so in a spirit of trust, openness, and love. On this special day, and as members of God’s family, let us continue to pray for our families that they may be a source of peace and comfort for us always.

It goes without saying that many “thanks” need to be expressed to all who helped, planned, and participated to make our Christmas celebrations so joyful and beautiful. Thank you to all who donated to our Christmas Flower Fund, to all liturgical ministers, our music ministry, our parish liturgy committee and to all who assisted in any way to bring our celebrations together. I would also like to offer my sincerest and grateful thanks to you for making Christmas at Saint William Parish such a wonderful time. My thanks to all who sent cards and best wishes to me and the staff and to all of you who continue to generously give and support the parish and our many activities through your time, talent, and treasure.

May the upcoming New Year be filled with many blessings for you and your family and may it be a time of great joy and happiness for you and our parish!

Happy New Year! ~ Fr. Balash
