June 5, 2022 ~ Pentecost Sunday

“Hallelujah! He is risen over all.”

Today we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost and in doing so bring to completion our Easter season as we commemorate the bestowal of the Holy Spirit and the beginning of the mission of the Church to spread the good news to all parts of the world. Our readings are filled with images we have seen before in Scripture. One of the most prominent is the tongues of fire that descends upon the apostles. We have seen fire as the presence of the divine when Moses encounters God in the burning bush. Likewise, the tongues of fire today also represent the divine, descending upon the apostles and charging them with a mission to proclaim God’s saving work. Another image that we encounter today is that of “breath.” Jesus breathes on the disciples as they are gathered, saying, “Peace be with you,” and in doing so it allows the disciples to overcome their fears. Likewise, in the creation story of Genesis, God breathes life into the nostrils of the living being God creates. God’s creative breath continues from the time of creation to Jesus and extends into our lives as well. This notion of creation is significant. So often we think of creation as being completed when God rests on the seventh day, but we need to remember that God’s creation is still unfolding and will continue to unfold until the end of time. When Jesus breathes on the apostles, he renews and charges them to continue the work of creation by building up the kingdom of God. Likewise the same Spirit moves in us today and allows us to participate in the creative work of the triune God. What power and responsibility! Today we called to remember no matter what our gifts are, whether they be words, presence, or deeds, we should always remember that the primary work of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost is to get Christ’s message out to everyone. On this feast of Pentecost, let us again invite the Holy Spirit to renew us to follow in Christ’s footsteps, the same footsteps that led to the cross and the glory of the empty tomb!

Make it a great week! ~ Fr. Balash

WEEKLY BIBLE REFLECTIONS

Pentecost Sunday

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." John 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

2022 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Closing In on Our Parish Goal!

THANK YOU to everyone who has made a gift to the 2022 Annual Diocesan Appeal – One in Hope, One in Mission. To date, 174 parishioners have made a contribution to the appeal totaling $37,590.00 (82%). Our parish portion of the $4,000,000 diocesan goal is $45,700.00. Our parish is truly blessed as we share the Word of God and the nourishment of the Eucharist. As we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, we, like the first disciples, are called to go out and witness to our faith. Part of that witness is how we help support the incredible work of Catholic Charities and the many ministries of the Church through support of the Annual Diocesan Appeal. Once again, thank you to those who have made a gift, and thank you to everyone prayerfully considering how they may be able to respond in support of all these worth-while activities in the Church. Pledge cards are available after Mass or at the Parish Office or visit www.doy.org/appeal to make a gift.

HOLY COMMUNION FROM THE CUP

This weekend we return the practice of offering the Precious Blood of the Lord at Communion time. As we celebrate the bestowal of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and the Church, we recall "from the first days of the Church's celebration of the Eucharist, Holy Communion consisted of the Lord's command to 'take and eat...take and drink'" (#17 Norms for the Distribution of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds). Reception of the Precious Blood from the chalice is available to those who desire to receive in this way. Please remember that the reception of the Precious Blood of the Lord remains an option. The act of receiving Holy Communion is an act of faith. The person makes this act of faith in the total presence of the Lord whether in receiving Holy Communion under one form or under both kinds. (#14-15 Norms for the Distribution of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds).
