June 12, 2022 ~ Trinity Sunday

“To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near!”

When we think about the word “mystery” we often associate it with a problem to be solved. It might even conjure up images of Sherlock Holmes, Scooby Doo or Angela Lansbury. But mystery in the theological sense is different from our typical understanding of the word. Rather than something to be solved, Christian mystery is something that is infinitely knowable. Instead of having a single, finite answer, such as Colonel Mustard in the kitchen with the candlestick, Christian mystery is mysterious in the sense that no matter how much we learn about something, there is still much more for us to know! As we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity today, we celebrate God revealing more of God’s self to us. No matter how much time we spend in prayer or studying theological texts, it is impossible for us to fully encapsulate our description or understanding of God. Fortunately, today’s gospel gives us a helpful insight:

“everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that the Spirit of Truth will take from what is mine and declare it to you.” Relationship between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is the foundation of the Trinity. God is relational by his very nature, and the triune God also invites us into this relationship. As we are created in the image and likeness of God, we take part in this relationship of love that is constantly poured and shared between us. We hear this in today’s second reading: “the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” In the Trinity we experience God as a continuous outpouring of love, and in our baptism we have been welcomed into the dynamic dance of grace that occurs between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Above all, God desires a wholehearted relationship with us that requires our active participation and fidelity. When we respond to and share this love, we actively participate in the mystery of the Trinity.

Make it a great week! ~ Fr. Balash

WEEKLY BIBLE REFLECTIONS

Trinity Sunday

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." John 16:13

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear His response.

Congratulations!!!

to Charlotte Marie Boyle,
who was baptized this weekend.
She is the daughter of Stephen & Sarah Boyle and sister to Henry and Thomas.

SUNDAY EVENING MASS CHANGE

In June of 2019, the late Bishop George Murry promulgated a regional pastor plan for all parishes in the Diocese of Youngstown. Part of the plan was to limit the number of regularly scheduled weekend Masses a priest could celebrate to three (3). At that time the 5:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon Mass at St. Rose Church in Girard was permitted as long as a pastoral need was necessary. The Mass has been celebrated with the help of neighboring priests. Since January 2022, each parish has been counting the number of individuals attending weekly. The 5:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon Mass has seen a consistent drop in attendance. Therefore, it will be discontinued on June 26, 2022. For those seeking a Sunday afternoon Mass, Saint Columba Cathedral will continue offering Mass at 4:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

THE PARISH CALENDAR

HOLY COMMUNION FROM THE CUP UPDATE

This weekend as we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity we recall the fullness of God – Father, Son, and Spirit. Last weekend we returned the practice of offering the Precious Blood of the Lord. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states that "Holy Communion has a fuller form as a sign when it takes place under both kinds." (#281). Reception of the Precious Blood from the chalice is available to those who desire to receive in this way. Please remember that the reception of the Precious Blood of the Lord remains an option. The act of receiving Holy Communion is an act of faith. The person makes this act of faith in the total presence of the Lord whether in receiving Holy Communion under one form or under both kinds. (#14-15 Norms for the Distribution of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds).

HOLY COMMUNION FROM THE CUP REVERENCE

It is important to remember that as we believe that the wine becomes fully and completely the Presence of Jesus Christ as does the bread, it follows that the Precious Blood of Christ deserves the same reverence and honor as the Consecrated Bread. If you choose not to receive from the cup it is fitting to offer a gesture of reverence instead of simply passing by as you return to your seat from receiving Holy Communion. It is most appropriate to stop and make a small bow or nod of the head to the cup as a sign of reverence and respect for our Lord who is truly present in the wine. Perhaps then, the next time you come forward to receive communion, if you choose not to receive the Precious Blood, you might make this sign of reverence a part of your receiving practice

CHANGE OF PERSONAL STATUS

Have you changed your telephone number? Has your personal status changed? Please notify the parish office and help us keep our records current.

ANCIENT IRELAND

Have you ever wanted to go to Ireland? Do you feel like you need to kiss the Blarney stone? Felicia Mooney and Dan Robinson are planning a 9-Day adventure to the Emerald Isle next June 20-29, 2023. We will begin the tour in Dublin, travel to Waterford, Cobh, Killarney, Galway, Donegal, Derry, and Belfast. See Blarney Castle, the Ring of Kerry, the Cliffs of Moher, the Book of Kells, the ancient monastery of Glendalough, and the Titanic's last port of call. The tour includes round trip air from Pittsburgh to Dublin, all airport transfers, 15 meals, hotel accommodations, luxury motor coach travel, and services of a professional travel director. $2,990 per person/double occupancy - NOT including airfare. Price of airfare to be determined at the end of 2022. $250 deposit required upon booking. Travel/Cancellation insurance recommended and available. If interested call Felicia Mooney at 330-638-4586 or Dan Robinson at 330-219-1927. Informational meetings will be held in Room 103 on June 26 and 28 at 6:30 p.m.
