June 19, 2022 ~ Body and Blood of the Lord

As with the Trinity, our understanding of Eucharist is fundamentally grounded in relationship. At the Last Supper, Jesus gathered with his friends and gave an example of how to continue to grow in relationship with God and each other. His words are both a statement of truth and a call to action: “this is my body...this is my blood...do this in remembrance of me.” As people of faith, our remembering is not a passive event where we simply recall what has happened in the past. Rather, our remembering is active. When we follow Jesus’s command to break the bread and share the cup, we not only remember the historical Jesus of the past, we also celebrate Jesus’s presence with us today as he continues to nourish and sustain us. We remember the past, celebrate the present, and look forward to the future where the reign of God will be fulfilled. We see this vividly in today’s gospel. When the disciples state that they only have five loaves and two fish to feed the gathered crowds, they do not realize that the Bread of Life is in their midst. As Jesus prays, breaks, and shares today, he foreshadows his future death and resurrection. Likewise, Jesus makes it abundantly clear that his disciples must follow his example in their own lives. When Jesus says, “give them some food yourselves,” he shows that they must take an active role in bringing about the kingdom of God. The paschal mystery is deeply communal. So is the Eucharist. Thus when we gather each week to celebrate the Eucharist, we do so in the hope that we too will continue to live the command given to the disciples long ago – to remember...be...and share the grace of God with others.

In celebrating the Feast of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ this weekend, we bring to a close a trinity of special Sunday feasts – Pentecost, Trinity Sunday and Corpus Christi. Next weekend we will return to Ordinary Time, however today the Church celebrates the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic species. In his words over the bread and wine at the Last Supper, Jesus reveals his desire to become a complete self-gift in the sacrifice of his body and blood. Today, this gift is still present to us in the Body and Blood of Jesus consecrated at the altar, consumed by us, and reserved for adoration and worship. Our participation in the Eucharist binds us to the sacrifice and victory of Jesus. Each time we draw close to the altar to consume his body and blood, we pledge ourselves to live out the new and everlasting covenant. We who receive the Lord in bread and wine are called to be the Body of Christ for others. On this special feast, we might reflect on how we are living this call.

One Monday and Tuesday I will celebrate two milestones. Monday marks my 35th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood and Tuesday brings me one year closer to retirement! I have truly been blessed over these years to be involved in the lives of so many through baptism, first communion, confirmation, marriage, illness, and sadly, even in death. I remain in awe by the faith, trust, and confidence of so many people and I am sincerely grateful and most appreciative of your support, encouragement, kindness, and friendship for these past 14 years. It remains my joy and privilege to be part of such a wonderful and vibrant parish!

Finally, on this Father’s Day weekend, we congratulate and offer best wishes to all Fathers, Grandfathers, and Stepfathers, and to all who give and nurture life. Happy Father’s Day weekend!

Make it a great week! ~ Fr. Balash

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER & BLESSING

On this Father's Day we say Thank You for the many blessings Fathers have bestowed on us. Fatherhood is a precious gift that gives and sustains life. In honor of all Fathers, Grandfathers, Stepfathers, Godfathers, and Great Grandfathers we offer this special prayer and blessing:

God our Father,
in your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless all men this day,
that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters,
may honor them with a spirit of profound respect.
May God bless all fathers this day, in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION FROM THE CUP REVERENCE

Now that the practice of offering the Precious Blood of the Lord has been restored at Mass, it is important to remember, that as we believe that the wine becomes fully and completely the Presence of Jesus Christ as does the bread, it follows that the Precious Blood of Christ deserves the same reverence and honor as the Consecrated Bread. If you choose not to receive from the cup it is fitting offer a gesture of reverence instead of simply passing by as you return to your seat from receiving Holy Communion. It is most appropriate to stop and make a small bow or nod of the head to the cup as a sign of reverence and respect for our Lord who is truly present in the wine. Perhaps then, the next time you come forward to receive communion, if you choose not to receive the Precious Blood, you might make this sign of reverence a part of your receiving practice

WEEKLY BIBLE REFLECTIONS

Body and Blood of the Lord

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." Luke 9:17

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You may be the answer to someone else's prayer.
